

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

DATABASE ADMINISTRATOR/RESEARCH ANALYST

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

The successful candidate will support faculty research in a number of areas, including real estate, public policy, and urban economics. Job responsibilities include collecting and maintaining databases, performing a variety of statistical and econometric analyses, writing research reports, and providing research-related programming support. Independent thinking, a thorough understanding of economics, and self-motivation are highly valued in performing these functions.

QUALIFICATIONS

BA/BS in Economics, Statistics, Finance, Mathematics, Computer Science or another closely-related discipline; previous experience as a research analyst or pursuing independent research is preferred. Computer-programming skills are necessary; ability to analyze data and write reports required. We anticipate that the successful candidate would work at the Center for up to three years, before going on to graduate programs or careers in real estate, finance, economics, or related disciplines. Recent Research Analysts have been admitted to the Berkeley, LSE, Michigan, Stanford, and Yale doctoral programs in Economics, as well as MIT and Penn Statistics. This is a full time position, starting in the Summer of 2017.
