

PANEL & NETWORKINGTHE INS AND OUTS OF
APPLYING TO GRADUATE SCHOOL

Applying for graduate/professional school?

Got statement-of-purpose writer's block?

Want to know who should write your recommendations?

October 12 | Career Center, Room 200 | 4:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.

This workshop will help students understand the graduate school application process, including researching graduate programs, understanding the admissions process, and networking with individuals at target institutions. The workshop will include tips and best practices for the statement of purpose, letters of recommendation, interview preparation, and other admissions-related topics.

SPEAKER*DR. ANNE DELA CRUZ

Assistant Dean, Graduate Division – Diversity, Inclusion & Admissions

Dr. Anne Dela Cruz is the Assistant Dean of Diversity, Inclusion and Admissions (DIA) at the UCLA Graduate Division. She oversees the graduate outreach, recruitment, and admissions for UCLA masters and doctoral programs as well as graduate diversity efforts. Prior to joining the Graduate Division, Dr. Dela Cruz was an Assistant Director at the UCLA Anderson School of Management Professional MBA Programs Career Management Center where she managed part-time MBA career center operations, career coached students, and programmed leadership/professional development offerings for Executive and Fully Employed MBA students.